

DAY-TRIPPERS

Following a break of nearly two years, Day-Trippers are back on the road. The idea behind Day-Trippers is that we visit places of interest, travelling by bus to make use of our bus passes. We also take a packed lunch, to keep costs to a minimum.

On 20th July we visited the Scottish Parliament building and were fortunate enough to see the Battle of Prestonpans tapestry on its last exhibition day.

Our next trip will take place on 16th August, when we visit the Hunterian Museum and Rennie Mackintosh house in Glasgow. On 13th September our final visit of the year will be to the Glasgow Gurdwara.

Details of our planned visits will be published in the weekly church intimations and posted on the church website, and all are welcome to join us on our travels, whether you have a bus pass or not!
